I LOVE YOU

love what do you do with me?
i didn't expect that what i see these feelings should killing me?

or maybe its a proof to see a proof who don't let me sleep?

i know its worth to keep

a proof who let me not eat?
just love would me now feed is it good what i have in my head?

you said have patience for that can i really handle these situation?

i hope, but i have a lot of passion have i think well about these love?

i am sure that i have think and wait enough but why it hurts so much in my soul and heart?

it should be a nice feeling and not so hard you said my words are negative and doesn't sound nice?

but you should know feelings comes always twice why comes feeling twice and for what?

because to compare both sides of love for that is it worth to wait for you?

definitely, because i love you
