YOU AND ME

today i have finally the chance to look in your eyes, deep down in your soul
and i wish i can see,

my mind always caress you, whenever the blood flood in my venes, just about,
you and me

i will listen to your voice and laughter, hope it say and means something about,
you and me

maybe i can hold your hands and fingers who type you wouldn't just chat with me forever and hopefully our hands touch, you end me

i would like to feel your heart when it beats the rhythm of,

and when you read my words, i wish your lips come closer to mine, for you and me
